Over the last several years, Digital Colony has more than tripled the size of its team and is now one of the world's largest and leading digital infrastructure investment firms. As the firm enters the next phase of development, these seasoned industry veterans will contribute to the ongoing development of Digital Colony's managed portfolio companies and support the firm's continued growth.

"We are pleased to welcome Michael and Josh to our best-in-class Operating Partners team," said Marc Ganzi, President and CEO of Colony Capital and CEO of Digital Colony. "They both have an outstanding track record in their respective sectors, and their insights and networks across the global digital infrastructure markets will help us further develop Digital Colony's footprint globally. Their focus will be on developing and driving Digital Colony's operator-led strategy, performance at our portfolio companies, and maximizing value for our customers, employees and investors."

Mr. Bucey's primary role at Digital Colony will be to support the firm's tower operations in new markets as the firm grows globally, providing invaluable perspectives to the firm as mobile network operators in emerging markets continue building out and densifying their networks.

Mr. Joshi's primary role at Digital Colony will be to focus on evaluating and expanding the firm's data center developments in the hyperscale, enterprise and edge sectors, utilizing his significant relevant experience working in dynamic and high growth situations across multiple international markets.

About Michael Bucey

Mr. Bucey has over 21 years of experience developing tower portfolios in emerging economies globally. Mr. Bucey pioneered the world's first international tower markets in Mexico and Brazil where he executed groundbreaking sale lease back and build to suit transactions. Mr. Bucey went on to expand the tower model by creating market leading portfolios in Indonesia, Myanmar, and The Netherlands. Prior to joining Digital Colony, he served as COO and a member of the Board of Directors of Protelindo, the largest independent owner and operator of wireless infrastructure in Indonesia. Previously, Mr. Bucey was Vice President of Development at American Tower do Brasil and developed wireless networks for Nokia in several European countries.

Mr. Bucey received a Bachelor's degree in Business Economics from Miami University of Ohio in 1993.

About Josh Joshi

Mr. Joshi has over 20 years of experience of building value in the digital infrastructure sector, holding senior positions at several multinational companies. Prior to joining Digital Colony, he served for over a decade as CFO of Interxion, a leading provider of carrier- and cloud-neutral data center solutions across EMEA, which was acquired by Digital Realty in 2019. Previously he served as CFO of TeleCity plc, a pan European carrier-neutral data center business. Mr. Joshi was co-founder and CFO of private-equity-backed Storm Telecommunications Limited, a U.S. and pan European voice, data and network service provider. Earlier in his career, Mr. Joshi spent 8 years in professional practice, predominantly with Arthur Andersen.

Mr. Joshi holds a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from Imperial College, London and is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
