

DIGITALBRIDGE GROUP, INC.

Charter of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors

A. Purpose

The principal purposes of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “NCG Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of DigitalBridge Group, Inc. (the “Company”) shall be to (i) identify and recommend to the full Board qualified candidates for election as Directors and recommend nominees for election as Directors at the annual meeting of stockholders consistent with criteria approved by the Board; (ii) develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company, and implement and monitor such guidelines as adopted by the Board; (iii) review and make recommendations to the Board on matters involving the general operation of the Board, including the size and composition of the Board and the structure and composition of Board committees; (iv) recommend to the Board nominees for each Board committee; (v) annually facilitate the assessment of the Board’s performance as a whole and of individual Directors, as required by applicable law, regulations and the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) corporate governance listing standards; and (vi) oversee the Board’s evaluation of management; and (vii) consider corporate governance issues that may arise from time to time and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto.

B. Committee Membership

The NCG Committee shall consist of no fewer than three independent Directors. Members of the NCG Committee will be appointed and may be removed by a majority vote of the entire Board, in its discretion. Each member of the NCG Committee must satisfy the independence requirements of the NYSE, any rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and any other applicable laws relating to independence, as determined by the Board in its business judgment.

C. Committee Powers, Duties and Responsibilities

1. Director Nominees. The NCG Committee shall recommend nominees to the Board for the next annual meeting of stockholders and to fill any vacancies on the Board. This responsibility includes working with the full Board to establish criteria for Board membership, considering matters related to the tenure and rotation of current Directors, including assessing the contributions of current Directors and periodic refreshment of the Board to maintain an appropriate balance of tenure, experience and perspectives, reviewing candidates’ qualifications and any potential conflicts with the Company’s interests, and making recommendations to the full Board with respect to these matters and with respect to the removal of a Director. The NCG Committee shall present all nominees, to the extent practical, in a timely fashion to allow for the full consideration of the nominees by the Board and the timely submission of any filing required by the SEC.
2. Director Criteria. The NCG Committee shall select individuals as Director nominees who shall have the highest personal and professional integrity, who shall have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and who shall be most effective, in conjunction with the other nominees to the Board, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the Company and its stockholders. In selecting Director nominees, the NCG Committee shall assess the nominee's independence and may consider, among other things, the following, all in the context of an assessment of the perceived needs of the Board at that time:

- diversity, age, background, skills and experience;
- personal qualities, high ethical standards and characteristics, accomplishments, and reputation in the business community;
- knowledge and contacts in the communities in which the Company conducts business and in the Company's industry or other industries relevant to the Company's business;
- ability and willingness to devote sufficient time to serve on the Board and committees of the Board;
- knowledge and expertise in various areas deemed appropriate by the Board;
- fit of the individual's skills, experience, and personality with those of other Directors in maintaining an effective, collegial, and responsive Board; and
- as to any incumbent Director, his or her performance and level of participation.

3. Committee Structure. The NCG Committee shall periodically review the Board's committee structure, including all standing or any ad hoc committees of the Board, and recommend to the Board for its approval such changes in number, function or composition of committees of the Board as the NCG Committee deems appropriate. In evaluating Directors to serve as members of each committee of the Board, the NCG Committee (i) shall take into account the applicable requirements for members of committees of boards of Directors under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the corporate governance listing requirements of the NYSE, and any other applicable laws, regulations and standards, as in effect from time to time, and (ii) may take into account such other factors or criteria as the committee deems appropriate, including Director's desires, judgment, skill, integrity and business or other experience. The NCG Committee shall review and recommend committee composition annually and shall recommend additional committee members to fill vacancies as needed. The NCG Committee also shall recommend to the Board a member of the Board to serve as Lead Director as set forth in the Company's corporate governance guidelines.

4. Corporate Governance Guidelines; Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The NCG Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company and code of business conduct and ethics applicable to employees, officers and directors of the Company. The NCG Committee periodically (but not less than annually) shall review the corporate governance guidelines and code of business conduct and ethics and recommend changes as necessary to the Board.

5. Board Operations and Compliance. The NCG Committee, at least annually and more frequently as it deems necessary or appropriate, shall review and make recommendations to the Board concerning the general operations of the Board, including its size and composition. The NCG Committee also shall (i) advise the Board periodically with respect to the Company's compliance with its corporate governance guidelines and applicable laws and regulations, including the applicable NYSE listing requirements, (ii) consider corporate governance issues that arise from time to time and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto (including on any remedial or corrective actions to be taken) and (iii) oversee and review on a periodic basis the orientation program for new Directors, as the NCG Committee may deem appropriate.

6. Performance Evaluations. The NCG Committee shall oversee the annual evaluation process for the Board, management and the other committees of the Board. At least annually, the NCG Committee shall undertake a performance evaluation of the NCG Committee, including an assessment of its performance in light of the duties and responsibilities set forth in this charter and such other matters as the NCG Committee may deem necessary or advisable in its discretion. In connection with such performance evaluation, the NCG Committee also shall review and assess the adequacy of this charter, and propose to the Board for its review and approval any changes to this charter deemed necessary or advisable.
7. Independence Review. The NCG Committee shall (a) oversee the independence review of members of the Board, including monitoring, reviewing and evaluating any change of circumstances or actual or potential conflict of interest relating to any director that may affect the independence of the director and (b) advise the Board as to the Committee's findings and recommendations relating to the independence and continued service of any such director and, on an ongoing basis, any other issues pertaining to the independence of the Company's directors.
8. Corporate Responsibility Matters. The NCG Committee shall oversee and periodically review and discuss with each of management and the Board the Company's activities relating to corporate social responsibility and sustainability matters and the external reporting thereof (including disclosures to be made in any annual corporate responsibility report, proxy statement and any other external reporting). To the extent the NCG Committee deems appropriate, the NCG Committee shall work with management to develop and recommend to the Board for approval guidelines relating to corporate social responsibility and sustainability matters and/or amendments thereto.
9. Succession Plan. At least annually, the NCG Committee shall review the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and key executive officer succession planning process and report its findings and recommendations to the Board. Together with the CEO, at least annually, the NCG Committee shall review the succession planning candidates for key executive officer positions and any other management succession and retention concerns identified by the NCG Committee.
10. Other. The NCG Committee shall have the following additional responsibilities, and any others as may be assigned to it by the Board from time to time:
 - (i) Review proposals to amend the Company's Articles or Bylaws and make recommendations to the Board concerning any such proposals.
 - (ii) Review stockholder proposals relating to matters of corporate governance and make recommendations to the Board concerning any such proposals.

- (iii) Oversee the Company's Director orientation and continuing education program and periodically assess opportunities to enhance the Company's continuing education opportunities for Directors and make recommendations to the Directors concerning such opportunities.
- (iv) Undertake any other duties or responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee by the Board from time to time relating to matters of corporate governance.

D. Committee Structure and Operations

1. Meetings. The NCG Committee shall meet with such frequency and at such intervals as it shall determine is necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities, but in any case no less than twice each year. A quorum at any NCG Committee meeting shall be at least a majority of the members. The NCG Committee shall establish a schedule of meetings to be held each year and may schedule additional meetings as it determines to be necessary or appropriate. The NCG Committee may meet by telephone or videoconference and may act by a majority of the members present at a meeting of the NCG Committee at which a quorum is present. The NCG Committee may also take action by unanimous written consent. The NCG Committee may invite to meetings such officers of the Company or other persons as the NCG Committee deems necessary or advisable in its discretion. Minutes of each meeting shall be kept and distributed to each member of the NCG Committee.
2. Chairperson. The Board shall appoint a Chairperson of the NCG Committee. The Chairperson shall be responsible for leadership of the NCG Committee, including presiding, when present, at all meetings of the NCG Committee, preparing the agenda, making committee assignments and reporting for the NCG Committee to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting following the meeting of the NCG Committee. If the Chairperson is not present at a meeting of the NCG Committee, the members present at the meeting shall designate one such member as the acting Chairperson for the meeting. In the event of a tie vote on any issue, the Chairperson's vote shall decide the issue.
3. Procedures. The NCG Committee may adopt such procedures relating to the conduct of its proceedings as it deems appropriate.
4. Delegation of Authority to Subcommittees. The NCG Committee may delegate its authority to members as the NCG Committee deems appropriate; provided that, (i) any such delegation is consistent with applicable rules of the NYSE; (ii) the NCG Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by any law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the NCG Committee as a whole; (iii) no such subcommittee shall consist of fewer than two members; and (iv) such delegate shall report any actions taken by it to the full NCG Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.
5. Retention and Termination of Outside Advisors. The NCG Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate outside legal or other advisors to the NCG Committee as it deems necessary or appropriate in its sole discretion, including any search firm to be used in identifying Director candidates. In selecting any such outside advisor, the NCG Committee shall consider the independence of such outside advisor, as determined by it in its business judgment. The NCG Committee shall have the sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms for such outside advisors. The Company shall provide appropriate funding for payment of the compensation (as determined by the NCG Committee in its sole reasonable opinion) of such outside advisors retained by the NCG Committee, as well as reasonable ordinary administrative expenses of the NCG Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

6. Reporting to Full Board. The NCG Committee shall report regularly to the Board (but in any event at the next Board meeting) regarding the matters reviewed and the actions taken at each meeting of the NCG Committee and make appropriate recommendations for action by the Board.

E. Disclosure

This charter, as may be amended from time to time, shall be posted on the Company's website. The Company shall state in its annual proxy statement that this charter is available on the Company's website and provide the website address.

F. Other Activities

The NCG Committee shall perform any other activities consistent with this charter, the Company's Articles and Bylaws and governing law as the Board deems appropriate.
